The Best Western Plus Chincoteague Island is a good option if you'd like to stay on the quieter and more wooded eastern part of the island. The hotel is right outside the entrance to the Assateague National Seashore and is connected to a bike path that takes you into the park. Bikes are available to rent with discounts for long term rentals. The rooms themselves are the largest by square footage on the island. Each room has a good-sized table to work at (in lieu of desks) and brand new beds. Free Wi-Fi is available in every room and the third floor rooms are hard wired. A free hot breakfast is served from 6 am - 10 am, but the hotel manager promised that they could work with irregular schedules. There are good restaurants within walking distance and a 25¢ trolley operates to Main Street and back until around 10pm and you can always bike into town for dinner. Another plus is their outdoor grill area (bring your mosquito repellent). It is only a 15-minute drive to Wallops Flight Facility. 72-hour cancellation policy. For more photos and reviews, go to: http://www.tripadvisor.com/Hotels-g57602-Chincoteague_Island_Virginia-Hotels.html
